COMMITMENT CODE

---

The goal of the Cazenovia Rowing Club is to help participants learn the concepts of rowing and practice the skills. Within this context, our purpose is also to promote team work, sportsmanship, self-discipline, commitment, and fun.

We would like all participants to understand that their behavior both affects and reflects not only themselves, but also our community of rowers. Therefore, we would like all club members to behave in a manner that will not bring discredit to the club or its members, to respect the judgement of coaches, to display fairness and good sportsmanship with club members, to attend practices, and to respect the club's equipment and facilities.

Expectations:

- Be a responsible member by displaying good judgement and commitment.
- Attend practices except for unexpected occurrences. Inform the coach if unable to attend practice.
- Be a positive role model.
- Encourage and support club members.
- Treat equipment and facilities with respect and care.

I am aware of the Cazenovia Rowing Club's code of conduct that are stated above and agree to the expectations for behavior.
